Eureka Edgar Allan Poe,2017-04-18 Eureka (1848) is a lengthy non-fiction work by American author Edgar Allan Poe (1809–1849) which he subtitled A Prose Poem, though it has also been subtitled as An Essay on the Material and Spiritual Universe. Adapted from a lecture he had presented, Eureka describes Poe's intuitive conception of the nature of the universe with no antecedent scientific work done to reach his conclusions. He also discusses man's relationship with God, whom he compares to an author. It is dedicated to the German naturalist and explorer Alexander von Humboldt (1769–1859). Though it is generally considered a literary work, some of Poe's ideas anticipate 20th century scientific discoveries and theories. Indeed a critical analysis of the scientific content of Eureka reveals a non-causal correspondence with modern cosmology due to the assumption of an evolving Universe, but excludes the anachronistic anticipation of relativistic concepts such as black holes. Eureka was received poorly in Poe's day and generally described as absurd, even by friends. Modern critics continue to debate the significance of Eureka and some doubt its seriousness, in part because of Poe's many incorrect assumptions and his comedic descriptions of well-known historical minds. It is presented as a poem, and many compare it with his fiction work, especially science fiction stories such as The Facts in the Case of M. Valdemar. His attempts at discovering the truth also follow his own tradition of ratiocination, a term used in his detective fiction tales. Poe's suggestion that the soul continues to thrive even after death also parallels with works in which characters reappear from beyond the grave such as Ligeia. The essay is oddly transcendental, considering Poe's disdain for that movement. He considered it his greatest work and claimed it was more important than the discovery of gravity. Eureka is Poe's last major work and his longest non-fiction work at nearly 40,000 words in length.

De asombros y nostalgia Jorge Eduardo Rivera C.,2016 Esta colección de ensayos del reconocido filósofo chileno Jorge Eduardo Rivera, presenta un variado panorama con lo mejor de su pensamiento. Sus reflexiones acerca de lo que para él constituye "la apasionante tarea de filosofar" debería ser hoy material obligatorio para alumnos y público general. Rivera nos presenta una relectura de los grandes de la filosofía griega con un análisis agudo y profundo, que abre la mente hacia espacios nuevos y desafiantes. Sus reflexiones sobre del sentido de la existencia humana y del continuo misterio con que ésta nos interpela, constituyen un verdadero tesoro para el pensamiento.

Investigación sobre el entendimiento humano David Hume,2004-09-22 David Hume (1711-1776) es uno de los más grandes filósofos de la historia. Su pensamiento, de talante escéptico, naturalista e ilustrado, insiste en el carácter falible de nuestras facultades cognitivas, en la continuidad entre el entendimiento humano y el instinto animal, en la absoluta imposibilidad de dar cualquier justificación racional de la creencia religiosa, y en la necesidad de que la ética y la política se construyan sobre la base de una sensibilidad moral que puede ser educada por la reflexión filosófica, la ciencia, el arte y la experiencia histórica. La Investigación sobre el entendimiento humano es una obra maestra de la literatura ensayística que Hume compuso para que sus principios y opiniones filosóficos resultaran accesibles a un público culto más amplio que el de los especialistas. En ella el lector encuentra expuestas con gran elegancia y claridad las líneas maestras de una metafísica pensada para respaldar una manera tolerante y laica de entender la vida humana. La presente edición bilingüe ofrece una nueva traducción de esta obra clásica, acompañada de una introducción y notas, así como de un epílogo realizado por un reconocido especialista en la materia.

Un magno tour literario por Francia Robert Darnton,2022-08-16 Robert Darnton analiza el comercio de libros en los años previos a la Revolución francesa. Su estudio atravesia diversos temas, como las prácticas editoriales de la época, los canales de venta y distribución, el papel de los vendedores de libros y la demanda literaria. El hilo conductor es un vendedor de libros de la época, Jean-François Favarger, quien realizó un viaje de cinco meses a través de toda Francia, analizando y comentando los acontecimientos del mundo del libro que presenciaba, los cuales plasmaba en un diario. De manera paralela, Darnton disecciona las implicaciones del negocio y la literatura en la formación de la cultura francesa, el papel de los libreros y vendedores como intermediarios entre el texto y el lector y los libros más populares de la época.
